KINGSTON, (Jamaica) March 23.

On Tueſday laſt the honourable the aſſembly of this iſland met according to proclamation, and waited on his excellency, in the council chamber, when he was pleaſed to make the following ſpeech, viz.

"Gentlemen of the Council,

"Mr Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

"AS I have nothing in command from his majeſty to propound to you, nor any new regulations to point out, as immediately neceſſary for your conſideration at this juncture, I have only to recommend to you, to conduct ſuch buſineſſes as ſhall come before you with that temper, which may bring this our firſt meeting to a ſpeedy and happy concluſion.

"Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

"I muſt apply to you to grant the ordinary ſupplies for the ſervice of the current year, more eſpecially thoſe which are wanted for the ſupport of his majeſty's troops and fortifications, and will not doubt of your chearful and ready compliance."

To his Excellency William-Henry Lyttelton, Eſq; Captain-General, Governor and Commander in chief in and over his Majeſty's iſland of Jamaica, and the territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame;

The humble ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY.

"May it pleaſe your Excellency,

"We his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the aſſembly of Jamaica, do with infinite concern beg leave to preſent to your excellency, that there is a determination upon record, in the office of the regiſter of the court of chancery, which we apprehend to be abſolutely deſtructive of one of the moſt eſſential privileges of the houſe; a determination not only new in its nature, and founded on proceedings before unheard of, and unattempted even from the firſt eſtabliſhment of the conſtitution and government of this iſland, but which has in its conſequence been productive of many great inconveniences ariſing from the deficiency of money in the treaſury, occaſioned by the ex, tration of all money bills, none of which were paſſed during the late aſſembly, their paſſage having been prevented by the diſſolution.

Warmly diſpoſed to remedy theſe inconveniencies, and to promote his majeſty's ſervice, to the utmoſt of our power, as far as is conſiſtent with our rights and privileges, and being extremely deſirous likewiſe of proceeding with alacrity and diſpatch towards the accompliſhment of theſe important views; it gives us inexpreſſible anxiety to find ourſelves incapacitated whilſt we labour under the preſſure of that determination, to enter into the conſideration of theſe ſubjects, conſiſtently with the honour and dignity of the houſe.

And as we are certain that the obliteration of this determination is the only meaſure that can reſtore that peace and tranquility ſo greatly deſired by every loyal ſubject and well-wiſher to his country; and as we have great reaſon to hope from your excellency's frequent declarations of your willingneſs and readineſs to promote the honour of his Majeſty's government, and the peace and happineſs of the people of this iſland, that they will concur with us in every meaſure that can be effectual to accompliſh thoſe deſirable ends; we do moſt earneſtly requeſt your Excellency to give the neceſſary orders, to the regiſter of the court of chancery, that the record of that determination may be accordingly expunged.

Paſſed the Aſſembly this nineteenth day of March, 1765.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to make the following

ANSWER:

"Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

"Your application to me in this addreſs, is of ſo extraordinary a nature, that it is difficult to give the anſwer it deſerves; ſurely you cannot ſeriouſly propoſe to me, to obliterate a determination which I myſelf have made, or be ignorant, that a judge who ſhould expunge a record of the court in which he preſides, would deſervedly incur the higheſt cenſures: But I ſee, with concern, that all my endeavours to promote that peace which you affect to deſire, and to maintain that fair correſpondence with you, which might contribute to the welfare of this country, are unſucceſsful; and that I muſt look for no ſupplies from you, unleſs I will conſent to ſuch things as you muſt know are alike inconſiſtent with my honour and my duty. I muſt therefore diſmiſs you, and leave the unprejudiced world to judge whether the inconveniences which this colony may experience are to be aſcribed to the faithful diſcharge of my judicial functions, in the impartial adminiſtration of juſtice to his Majeſty's ſubjects, or to your aſſuming conduct and undutiful reſolution, to withhold thoſe grants which the king and the iſland had ſo much right to expect from you.

"I do, in his Majeſty's name, prorogue this general aſſembly unto Monday the ſixteenth day of September next, and it is prorogued accordingly."
